

God's Garden

God looked around his garden,
And He found an empty place.
And then He looked down upon the earth,
And saw your tired face.

He put His arms around you
And lifted you to rest.
God's garden must be beautiful
For He only takes the best.

He knew that you were suffering,
He knew you were in pain.
He knew that you would never
Get well on earth again.

He saw the road was getting rough,
and the hills were hard to climb.
So He closed your weary eyelids,
and whispered "Peace be thine."

It broke our hearts to lose you.
But you didn't go alone,
For part of us went with you,
The day God called you home.

She became a grandmother to Kirha on April 24th 2011; this was the greatest moment of Kathy's life as her granddaughter was her pride and joy.

Her hobbies were sewing, crocheting, and needle work. She would sew outfits and make blankets for all her nieces, nephews and granddaughter Kirha.

Kathy will be greatly missed for her tremendous smile, contagious laughter, sassiness and her great appreciation of all the friends she accumulated through her life's journey; but above all, it was her strength with her many health challenges that astounded her family and friends.
