

We couldn't begin, To count the times
She tolerated our moods,
Consoled our heartbreaks & disappointments,
Endured our ups and downs,
LISTENED to words confused by tears
And just simply understood
For no other reason
Than because SHE LOVED US.

The years hold
Precious Memories,
But most of all they hold growth.
In a way, we grew up together...
Mom is our definition
Of a special person... Fantastic...
Exceptional... Unique... Enduring!
She filled our lives with HAPPINESS
And sweet feelings that we will Carry in our hearts forever

In Loving Memory
CELEBRATING A LIFE

Marie Anderson

Born to Fred & Lydia LeMay
May 31, 1926 ~ Epping, North Dakota

Returned to Her Heavenly Father
September 10, 2017 ~ Williston, North Dakota

Funeral Service

2 pm, Thursday, September 14, 2017
West Prairie Lutheran Church
Williston, North Dakota

Officiating

Reverend Nicole Martin

Music

John Slater & Cindy Mann ~ Vocalists
Ruth Carlson ~ Accompanist

Pallbearers

Dale LeMay	Greg Big Horn
Marty Oyloe	Wesley Oyloe
Tim Good	Jake Henderson
Mark Oyloe	Linde Oyloe

Final Resting Place

Round Prairie Churchyard ~ Williston, North Dakota

Hope

Arrangements By

Fulkerson-Stevenson Funeral Home of Williston, ND

In Loving Memory Of

Marie Anderson

May 31, 1926 - September 10, 2017

Marie was born to Fred and Lydia (Bauer) LeMay on May 31, 1926 in Williston, ND. Chim-Marie as her grandmother called her, was a descendant from some of our strongest pioneers. She graduated from Flandreaux, SD high school and was Salutatorian of her class. Marie worked at Montgomery Wards after graduation; she also worked during the summer at resorts in Wisconsin Dells, WI.

Marie met and married her first husband Lloyd Oyloe and together they had two sons, Roger and Ronald. Marie did what all women her age did, she was a wife, mother, ranch hand, school cook, Sunday school teacher and anything else that needed to be tended to. After Lloyd passed away, Marie volunteered at the Mercy Hospital gift shop.

Marie started a new life adventure with Bud Anderson. Together they spent their life farming, ranching, traveling, dancing, living and laughing.

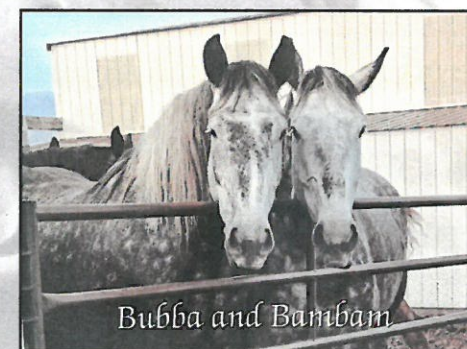

No matter what, Marie always had an open door. The countless people who relied on Marie's hospitality are unknown, but it is clear that her generosity was felt by many. This was evident with the amount of people who called or came to see her and how many hours were spent visiting with Marie and reminiscing about the old days, especially towards the end of her life.

So many things can be said about Marie, she was a good wife, a wonderful cook, her house was always clean, she was a hard worker and so much more. But what truly matters are the things that are hard to say. Marie was loyal to a fault; if she considered you a friend then you were a friend for life.

Marie was strikingly beautiful all the years of her life, but never more beautiful than when she looked upon, thought about or had a conversation with her kids. She had a very special connection with Ron, the love between her and her son was immeasurable. They read each other's minds with just a look, no words were necessary.

Marie lived a full and rich life but she didn't measure success by conventional means. With her whole heart she believed that her kids and grandkids were her greatest success, her life's work. She was so proud of them and all they did no matter how big or small. Time spent with family and friends was one of the things she treasured most. She may not have ever realized it, but she taught each of us so many things. She inspired us to work hard, love deeply, laugh out loud, and live life to the fullest. She leaves us all rich in memories.

She is survived by her husband, Bud Anderson; her son, Ron Oyloe; sister, Joyce Good; 3 grandchildren, 3 great grandchildren and several nephews and nieces. She was preceded in death by her husband, Lloyd; son, Roger and her siblings; three brothers, Paul, James and Dennis LeMay and 4 sisters, Bertha LeMay, Catherine Big Horn, Dora Higgins, and Leona Granbois

Bubba and Bam Bam