

When I come to the end of the day
And the sun has set for me
I want no rites in a gloom-filled room.
Why cry for a
soul set free?
Miss me a little, but not too long
And not with your head bowed low.
Remember the love we once shared-
Miss me, but let me go.
For this is a journey we all must take
And each must go alone.
It's all a part of the Maker's plan,
A step on the road to HOME.
When you are lonely and sick at heart
Go to the friends we know, & bury your sorrows
In doing good deeds-
Miss me, but let me go.

In Celebration Of

Dorland Orlo Melland

May 28, 1930 - September 24, 2018

Dorland Orlo Melland, 88, of Tioga, North Dakota peacefully passed away, September 24, 2018, at Tioga Nursing Home. He was born May 28, 1930 to Carl Melland and Margaret Melland (Hall) in Wheelock Township, North Dakota. Dorland was baptized and confirmed in the Wheelock Lutheran Church. He grew up on the family farm and graduated from Wheelock High School. He was always so proud of playing basketball for the Wheelock Wolves. Dorland married Anice Flaten of Williston and from this marriage, they had three daughters; Rhonda, Patty and Donna. They lived on the Melland family farm where Dorland farmed for many years. Anice passed in 1973. He later quit farming and started Melland Construction, but his love of farming never left him.

He is survived by his loving children, Rhonda Daniel and husband Keith, Patty Kerbaugh, Donna Peterson and adopted son Todd Melland and wife Dana; grandkids, Lance Daniel (Brenda), Shana Iverson (Deon), Levi Kerbaugh, Marcy Hilzendeger (Daniel), Nicholas Peterson (Nina), Christopher Peterson, Kaitlyn Peterson, Kyla and Tessa Melland; great grandchildren, Madison Daniel, Zane Daniel, Jace Iverson (Kylie), Jaden Iverson, Sara Grace Iverson and Sophia Hilzendeger; great-great grandson, Jax Iverson; all of Betty's children, grandchildren; great grandchildren; Dorland's second wife, Sally Bruels and her family; sister, BettyAnn Zimmerman (Larry); brother, Gary Melland and many nieces and nephews.

Dorland is preceded in death by his parents, Carl and Margaret Melland; his sisters, Nadine Wegley and Ruth Jacobson; his brothers, Meryl, Kermit, Kenny and Bobby Melland; his first wife, Anice Melland and by his third wife, Betty Spletstoser.
