

Jacob Matthew Pantaleone born October 1, 1987 in Joliet, IL to Mark and Lisa (Jameson) Pantaleone, and was baptized at St Lawrence Catholic Church in South Wilmington, IL. Jake was joined by a brother Andrew Pantaleone in 1991.

Jake spent most of his childhood in Essex, IL attending Reed Custer Schools. He was especially close to his Grandma Dee and Grandma Rose. He enjoyed time "junking" at Grandpa RJ's antique shop listening to old country music. He shared a love the Chicago Bears and Chicago Cubs with his Grandpa Matt. He enjoyed traveling with his Aunt Linda and Uncle Larry. He loved picking on and protecting his brother Andrew. Jake loved sitting at a campfire and talking with his Dad. He gave the best bear hugs to his Mom and always ended with "I love you Momma" even as an adult. He loved music and drawing at a young age and was always fascinated with anything with a motor in it. He was very proud of his Italian heritage and loved Baugna Caulda and the home made ravioli his Grandma Dee, Aunt Bonnie and Mom would make together.

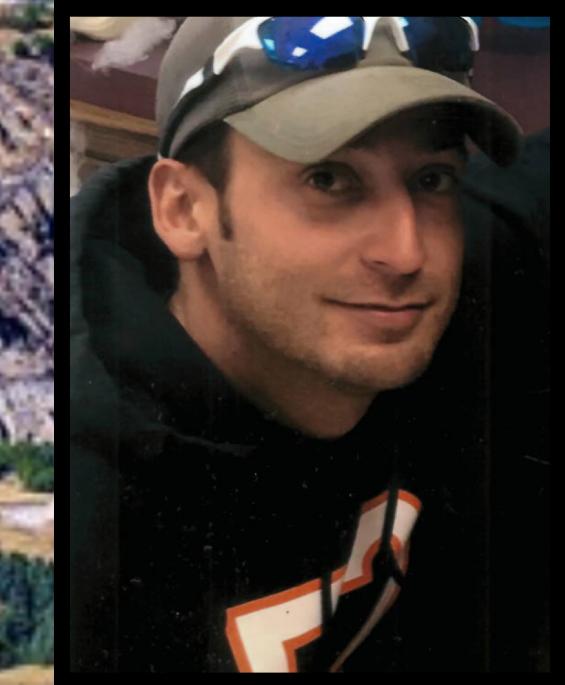

In 2007, Jake joined the rest of his family in Watford City. He loved living in the country, his dogs Bailee and Luka and his enormous chickens. He loved tinkering on old 4 wheel drives and was very proud of his old ford Bronco. He loved all kinds of music, taught himself to play basic guitar and was always saying to anyone who would listen "you have to hear this song". He enjoyed fishing and the outdoors which led to his favorite jobs in construction and as a ranch hand.

He met Tori Cook soon after moving here and together they have 2 beautiful daughters Justyne (7) and Jadyn (4) whom he loved with all his heart. Together they enjoyed playing outdoors, games, music and even painting Daddy's toenails. Jake was expecting the birth of his first son in August, 2019 with Heather Jones.

Jake struggled through his adult years with depression and its complications, losing that battle on May 10, 2019. He is preceded in death by his beloved Grandmother Rosalee Jameson.

Jake is survived by his daughters Justyne and Jadyn Pantaleone of Watford City, his mother Lisa and step father Mark Iverson of Watford City, his father Mark and step mother Karen Pantaleone of Grassy Butte, his brother Andrew Pantaleone of Bismarck, Grandparents Robert Jameson of Pontiac, IL, Matt and Dee Pantaleone of South Wilmington IL, Great Aunt Doris Berdon of Raymore, MO, Great Uncle Doyle Berdon of Afton, WY, Aunts Linda (Larry) Dvorak of Essex, IL, Bonnie (Ken) Bozue of Gardner, IL, Uncles Steve Jameson of Largo, FL, Marty Pantaleone of Gardner, IL, and Kelly (Darla) Pantaleone of Bloomington, IL. Several cousins, being particularly close to cousin Jennifer Bozue. As young child, cousin DJ Pantaleone was more of a sister to him, being less than a month apart in age. Step Grandmother Jan Iverson of Oakes, ND, Step Aunt Cindy (Brad) Schmitz of Oakes, ND, Step brothers Ian and Shane Dockter and Shane's sons Drayden and Drayce of Bismarck.

Pantaleone

October 1, 1987 ~ May 10, 2019

I have been deprived of peace; I have forgotten what prosperity is. So I say, "My splendor is gone and all that I had hoped from the LORD." I remember my affliction and my wandering, the bitterness and the gall. I well remember them, and my soul is downcast within me. Yet this I call to mind and therefore I have hope: Because of the LORD's great love we are not consumed, for his compassions never fail. They are new every morning; great is your faithfulness. I say to myself, "The LORD is my portion; therefore I will wait for him." The LORD is good to those whose hope is in him, to the one who seeks him; it is good to wait quietly for the salvation of the LORD. Lamentations 3:17-26

The LORD is my Shepherd;
I shall not want.
He maketh me to lie down in green pastures:

He leadeth me beside the still waters,
He restoreth my soul:

He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake. Yea though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death.

*I will fear no evil:
for Thou art with me;*

Thy rod and Thy staff they comfort me.

Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies
Thou anointest my head with oil; My cup runneth over

Surely goodness & mercy shall follow me
all the days of my life;

And I will dwell in the house
of the LORD forever.
- Psalm 23
