

Gordon Scott Kummer was born November 16, 1963 to George and Bonnie (Broadhead) Kummer at Sidney, Montana. He was raised and educated in Watford City and graduated from Watford City High School in 1983.

Upon graduation, Gordon worked various jobs in the community including working for the custom combining firm Paxton.

Gordon enjoyed fishing and playing pool and pinochle.

He is survived by his parents, George and Bonnie of Watford City, ND; brother, Joseph (Donna) Kummer of Watford City, ND; sisters, Lana Swensrud of Sidney, MT and Tracy Kummer of Hatton, ND; and numerous nieces and nephews.

He was preceded in death by brother, Vincent; paternal grandparents, Fred and Agnes Kummer; maternal grandparents, Mark and Dorothy Broadhead; and step paternal grandfather, Ed Williams.

“Ode to a Boy that was given to us by some miracle; He was a joy to us with his child wisdom; as he grew into a very caring and giving man. Oh what a journey, starting with walking, riding bicycle, learning, school and wrestling, and later riding horses, bulls and motorcycles, tractors, combines, trucks and cars. But, oh my, how it went so fast, Love to you, Our Boy!”

In Remembrance

I'm Free

*Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God has laid you see.
I took his hand when I heard Him call
I turned my back and left it all.*

*I could not stay another day
To laugh, to love, to work, to play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way
I found that peace at the close of day.*

*If my parting has left a void
Then fill it with remembered joys.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
O yes, these things I too will miss.*

*Be not burdened with times of sorrow
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow
My life's been full, I savored much
Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.*

*Perhaps my time seemed all too brief
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief,
Lift up your hearts and peace to thee-
God wanted me now: He set me free...*
