

Liss-Beth Cole was born May 24, 1958 to Roger Rubenstein and Inger Johnson in Stavanger, Norway. At the age of 10 she moved with her family to Williston, ND where she grew up and attended school, graduating from Williston High School.

She married Dan Cole and together they had two wonderful children, Erik and Christine.

After graduation she attended the North Dakota State School of Science, Williston State College and Minot State College where she earned her degree. She began working for various oil companies before starting her career at Red River Supply where she had been employed for over 20 years.

Liss spent many years with her special friend, Eldon Erickson. They enjoyed their Harley Davidson and traveling to the Sturgis Bike Rally in South Dakota. She enjoyed camping and fishing with her friends. She loved to spend time in her yard and her garden. She enjoyed spending time with her son, Erik and daughter, Christine, and her grandchildren.

She was famous for her salsa and enjoyed spending time with her friends.

Liss is survived by her mother, Inger Beeson; son, Erik (Elena) Cole, daughter, Christine (Lane) Christensen, and granddaughters, Lacy Cole and Averi Christensen all of Williston, ND; and her stepfather, Tom Beeson of Washington; and numerous friends.

She was preceded in death by her grandmother, Lily Johnson; and special friend, Eldon Erickson.

I'm Free

*Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God has laid you see.
I took his hand when I heard Him call
I turned my back and left it all.*

*I could not stay another day
To laugh, to love, to work, to play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way
I found that peace at the close of day.*

*If my parting has left a void
Then fill it with remembered joys.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
O yes, these things I too will miss.*

*Be not burdened with times of sorrow
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow
My life's been full, I savored much
Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.*

*Perhaps my time seemed all too brief
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief,
Lift up your hearts and peace to thee-
God wanted me now: He set me free...*
