In Loving Memory Of

Aiden James Hinkle

January 1, 2014 - May 9, 2016

When a cure was not to be.
He closed his around you and whispered,
"Come To Me."
In tears we saw you sinking,
we watched you fade away.

were almost broken, you fought so hard to stay.
But when we saw you sleeping so peacefully, free from pain, we should not wish you back to suffer that again So treasure him, Lord, in your garden of rest.
For here on earth,
He Was The Best.

Aiden James Hinkle was born January 1, 2014 in Billings, MT ten minutes after his twin sister Emily. From the moment he was born we knew he would make an impression on everyone who met him. Aiden entered the world feet first ready to run and take on any obstacle that he would face. Aiden's journey started out like a roller coaster ride, but even through the trying times he was the most patient, loving, and gentle little boy. He brought joy to all those around him. With his personality and quirky smile we knew he was always up to something.

During his short lived life he loved so many things. He loved his trucks, stuffed animals, books, dancing to music and especially his phone, which he would talk and babble on for what seemed like hours. He really enjoyed staring out the window to make sure his birds and bunnies were still there to greet him. He loved to play games, his favorite was peek a boo with us or sister. Most of all he loved making us smile and laugh, which will be missed greatly. He also loved giving hugs. The hugs he gave were not just a hug; it was like he was trying to comfort us.

The bond he developed with his sister Emily was something that helped him through his life. They both loved each other even when they didn't see eye to eye. During his battle with liver disease Emily pushed him to excel at every milestone. She would take her time to show him what he could accomplish if he just tried a little harder. When he started crawling she would crawl alongside him to help push him further than he knew he could. Emily and Aiden formed a bond that will never be broken even when his time on earth was short.

The final chapter of Aiden's life began on May 5, 2016 when he got called for a liver transplant. Prior to going back to the operating room he was calm. collected, patient and so happy. The surgeon said he soared through surgery with flying colors. Little did we know that it would be the start of his biggest fight yet. Aiden started out with no complications after surgery and he seemed relaxed at first. A few hours later his pain was no longer manageable and something didn't feel right to us. He was intubated again in hopes to control his pain. Doctors discovered a minor complication and needed to do emergency surgery number one. Things seemed to be going well again until another complication was discovered leading to emergency surgery number two. We had a sigh of relief because he began doing well and everything looked good. His final day started out unbearable as his new liver had stopped functioning and required emergency surgery number three. As the day dragged on Aiden slowly became unstable which lead to emergency surgery number four. Aiden's perseverance, stubbornness, and sheer determination to live got him through the biggest trial he had faced yet. He continued to show courage, strength and the ability to fight for his life. Unfortunately he was called home to be with the lord a few short hours later. Aiden was surrounded by his mom and dad at the moment of his passing.

Aiden is going to be deeply missed by his parents, Jared and Amanda Hinkle twin sister Emily, grandparents, Ron Hinkle & Jill Campbell, Barry Johnson, Kim Cox and special grandparents Sandra and Eldean Flynn, great grandparents, Mary Ellen Holt, Robert and Connie Johnson, Ann Carscallen, Beth and George Daylis and numerous aunts, uncles, cousins and everyone whose life he has touched.

Aiden was preceded in death by his great grandfathers, Ben Holt and George Carscallen, and his grandfather, James Cox.

Loving Memory

GOD looked around the garden,
And found an empty space.
He looked down upon the earth,
And saw your tired face. He put

And lifted you to rest.
And lifted you to rest.
God's garden must be beautiful
For He only takes the BEST.
He knew that you were weary,
and He knew that you were in pain.
He knew that you would never be well on earth again.

He saw the roads were getting rough, and the hills were hard to climb.

So He closed your weary eyelids, and whispered eace be Thine.
