

The LORD is my Shepherd;
I shall not want.

He maketh me to
lie down in green pastures:

He leadeth me beside the still waters,
He restoreth my
soul.

He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake. Yea though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death.

*I will fear no evil:
for Thou art with me;*
Thy rod and Thy staff they comfort me.

Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies

Thou anointest my head with oil; My cup runneth over

Surely goodness & mercy shall follow me
all the days of my life;

And I will dwell in the house of the LORD forever.
- Psalm 23

Dianne Jeannette Johnson

November 3, 1942 - June 27, 2017

Dianne Jeannette Johnson was born on November 3, 1942 to Emmett and H. Barbara (Rittle) Young, in Glendive, MT. She attended grade school in Glendive and Savage, MT and graduated in 1961 from Sidney High School in Sidney, MT.

On June 8, 1961 she was united in marriage to Joel E. Johnson, Sr., in Reno, NV. They were married 55 years at the time of Joel's death in August 2014. Dianne and Joel had two children, a daughter, Jodi McPherson Shaide and a son, Joel E. Johnson, Jr.

Dianne and Joel lived at eight different places during the time they served in the U.S. Navy. She was a strong devoted military wife, always working outside of the home and keeping the home fires burning. She worked as a cashier for several grocery stores, retail stores and at the time of her death she had worked for WalMart in Williston, ND for more than 20 years. Dianne loved working with the public and everyone knew the lady with the tattoo on her ear in jewelry at WalMart. She was definitely one of a kind and had a great gift for interacting with people with a laugh everyone will remember.

Dianne enjoyed spending time with her grandchildren including watching two of her granddaughter's hockey games in Williston, teaching how to make family holiday candies and taking her youngest granddaughter shopping. For a time, Dianne found a love of oil painting and always talked about getting back into when she retired. She also loved her pets, plants, flowers and iced tea.

Dianne died Tuesday, June 27, 2017 at her home in Williston, ND and is survived by two children, a daughter, Jodi McPherson Shaide (Mike), of Fairview, MT; a son Joel E. Johnson, Jr. (Tammy) of Williston, ND; seven grandchildren, Megan Milbradt (Josey), of Bismarck, ND; Adam McPherson (KaCee), of Savage, MT; Alex McPherson (Carly), of Glendive, MT; Zachary McPherson, of Savage, MT; Grace McPherson, of Fairview, MT; Kendel Johnson, of Williston, ND; Mattie Johnson, of Williston, ND; seven great-grandchildren; a brother, John Young (Pam), of Clyde Park, MT; a sister, Chris Brookman, of Bainville, MT; a brother in law, Terry Johnson, of Lake Forrest, CA; and several nieces and nephews.
