

I'm Free

*Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
 I'm following the path God laid for me.
 I took His hand when I heard Him call
 I turned my back and left it all
 I could not stay another day
 To laugh, to love, to work or play
 Tasks left undone must stay that way
 I found that peace at the close of the day
 If my parting has left a void
 Then fill it with remembered joy
 A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss
 Ah, yes, these things I too will miss
 Be not burdened with times of sorrow
 I wish for you the sunshine of tomorrow
 My life has been full, I've savored much Good friends, good times,
 a loved one's touch
 Perhaps my time seemed all too brief
 Don't lengthen it now with undue grief
 Lift up your heart and share with me
 God wanted me now, He set me free!*

Beulah Louise (Weaver) Asbeck was born on February 13, 1940, in Sidney, MT, the daughter of Ward and Beulah (Cundiff) Weaver. She attended and graduated from Sidney High School in 1958. During her high school years she worked part-time at J.C. Penney's. It was also during this time that Louise met the love of her life, Glen Asbeck.

On August 8, 1959 Louise married her high school sweetheart, Glen. Louise quickly dove into her role on the farm raising chickens, milking cows, and keeping the books for the farm. Her marriage was blessed with 4 children, whom she nurtured and loved unconditionally. During the early years of her marriage, she held part-time jobs at Richland National Bank (Stockman Bank) as well as at the offices for the Superintendent of Schools. Louise was a fantastic homemaker, wife, mother, and baker; she was famous for her breadsticks and caramel rolls. She loved being a grandma, and was very proud of her grandchildren. She enjoyed going to their various activities, and spending quality time with them.

Louise was strong in her faith, and was deeply involved with St. Matthew's Catholic Church. She was a member of Catholic Daughters of America, where she once held a national position. She was also involved in various church ministries including Eucharist minister and grief ministries. In addition, she spent many years as a hospice volunteer. Louise loved helping others, and was always willing to give her time.

Louise and Glen spent many years wintering in Lake Havasu City, AZ. She continued going to Arizona after Glen's passing, traveling on her own. They made many new, lifelong friends, and played and laughed a lot. While in Arizona, she enjoyed many arts and crafts, playing games, and lots of social activities. She was also an avid reader, and could often be found with a good book in her hands.

Louise was a loving wife, mother, grandmother, sister, aunt and friend. She was a generous, caring, and kind soul. She was loved by so many, and will be missed deeply.

Louise was preceded in death by her loving husband Glen; brother, James Weaver; parents, Ward and Beulah Weaver; and in-laws Hugo Sr. and Nelda Asbeck.
