

An Irish Blessing

May the road rise to meet you.
May the wind be always at your back. May the sun shine warm upon your face, the rain fall soft upon your fields, and until we meet again, may God hold you in the palm of His hand.

The LORD is my Shepherd;
I shall not want.
He maketh me
lie down in green pastures:
He leadeth me beside the still waters,
He restoreth my soul.

He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake. Yea though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death.

I will fear no evil:
for Thou art with me;
Thy rod and Thy staff they comfort me.

Thou preparast a table before me in the presence of mine enemies
Thou anointest my head with oil; My cup runneth over Surely goodness & mercy shall follow me
all the days of my life;

And I will dwell in the house
of the LORD forever.

Myrna Loy was born in Sidney, MT on July 28, 1933, the daughter of William "Dude" and Loy (Ludington) Cummins. They lived by Lone Tree Spillway, where her dad Dude, was a ditch rider. The family moved south of Sidney where Myrna spent winters ice skating on Holly Lake and swimming in the irrigation ditch in the summers. Myrna attended schools in Sidney and graduated from Sidney Senior High School in 1951. Following graduation, she attended Normal School where she received her teaching certificate.

Myrna taught school at Estes School where she met and married, Ole Olson on May 28, 1952. They farmed and ranched at Sheep Butte, ND and later at Skaar Route and Crane, MT.

In 1977, they moved to Sidney where Myrna was in Knitting Club, Class of 1951, Moose Lodge and the Sons of Norway. She was a member of the Peoples Congregational Church.

In 2013, they moved to Billings, MT when her husband, Ole, needed more care. Ole died in October of 2014 and Myrna remained in Billings. With her health falling, she entered St. John's Lutheran Home. Myrna died on Monday morning, March 26, 2018, at the Senior Independent Hospice, of the St. John Lutheran Home, Billings, MT.
