Tina Marie was born to Jim and Elizabeth (Conklin) Livengood on May 27, 1973 in Bremerton, Washington. She grew up in North Dakota, Washington and Oregon. Tina was the definition of a true 80's child! She loved everything from that era whether it was the music, the movies or the fashion.

In 1996, Tina was baptized into the Mormon faith in Bremerton, Washington at the Latter Day Saints Church; 2nd Ward. She found her strength in her faith and though she would face many obstacles in her life she would hold fast to the iron rod and continued to move forward growing her testimony every step of the way.

Tina had a great love and devotion to her family; she was a constant companion to her parents. On January 12, 2007 she would be blessed with her own beautiful child, Karla. Tina was a proud mother, and was very active in all of Karla's activities. She would also develop a special bond with her all of nieces and nephews, especially Aayden. Tina was a very loving daughter, sister, mother and aunt.

Tina took after her mother, Elizabeth, being very organized and a talented cook, she could make a delicious meal out of anything. She enjoyed gambling and once got all 5 numbers on a lottery ticket in Oregon, but missed the powerball number by only a few digits! Tina loved watching football and cheering on her favorite team the Greenbay Packers. Another favorite pastime was going fishing with her family.

In her lifetime, Tina had to endure struggles physically, but she always endured and tried to overcome her pain. She was stubborn in a lot of ways, but had the ability to persuade a person to follow her. She truly lived by her belief "fight for what you believe in and keep going".

At the time of Tina's passing she was attending the church of Latter Day Saints; Ward 3 in Williston, North Dakota. Her family and friends will miss her dearly.

She is preceded in death by her parents. Tina is survived by her daughter, Karla Martin-Livengood (Washington); sister's, Wanda Byrd (Oklahoma) and Judy Etzel (Dickinson, ND) and; nieces, Joey Campos (Williston, ND), Brittany Tryon (Dickinson, ND) and Carla Byrd (Oklahoma); great nieces and nephews, Aayden Campos (Williston, ND), Jordynn Campos (Williston, ND), Mia Campos (Williston, ND) and precious little one due in April (Williston, ND).
