

The LORD is my Shepherd;
I shall not want.
He maketh me to
lie down in green pastures:
He leadeth me beside the still waters,
He restoreth my soul.

He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake. Yea though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death.

I will fear no evil:
for Thou art with me;
Thy rod and Thy staff they comfort me.

Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies
Thou anointest my head with oil; My cup runneth over Surely goodness & mercy shall follow me
all the days of my life;

And I will dwell in the house of the LORD forever.
- Psalm 23

Glenn Moore, 87, passed away on Monday, September 9th, 2019 in Williston, ND. He was born in Crosby, ND on May 31, 1932 and grew up on the farm northwest of Fortuna. His fondest memories of childhood all centered around Skjermo Lake and the family homestead, hunting with his uncle Arnold. His uncles, George and Arnold Skjermo, were a great joy to him. In his early teens, he and his sister Frances moved to Westby to attend high school. He graduated in 1950, and then joined the Air Force shortly thereafter. He was stationed in Japan for 18 months during the Korean War.

After serving in the military, he moved to California, where he began working for Western Union. There he met Marian, and they were married in 1964. He eventually landed a job as a computer technician for Air Force Communications at McClellan AFB in Sacramento. He worked there for many years, while he and Marian raised their two boys, but he always missed North Dakota. Each summer vacation he would pack up his family and take us all to Westby, where we enjoyed a refreshing break from life in the suburbs. When he retired, he moved to the Bitterroot Valley in western Montana, to be closer to his grandchildren. Finally, in 2015, he moved back home to North Dakota again.

Glenn is survived by his two sons, Dr. Jason Moore of Williston and Dr. Kevin (Vicki) Moore of Dayton, TN; his sister, Dorothy Siebold, of Milford, Iowa; two nephews, Doug (Cindi) Seibold of Spencer, IA; Dean (Daleen) Seibold of Okoboji, IA; and eight grandchildren, Joel, Daniel, Ian, Thaddeus, Gabrielle, Cristine, Liam, and Andrew.

He was preceded in death by his parents, Dallas and Florence (Skjermo) Moore, and his siblings Hazel Moore, Frances Rivers and Dalton Moore.

In Loving Memory Glenn DeWitt Moore

Born to Dallas & Florence Moore

May 31, 1932

Crosby, North Dakota

Returned to His Heavenly Father

September 9, 2019

Williston, North Dakota

Graveside Service

Friday, September 13, 2019 at 11:00 am

Hillside Memorial Gardens

Williston, North Dakota

Officiating

Pastor Brian Martin

Arrangements By

Fulkerson Stevenson Funeral Home

Williston, North Dakota