

AS I SIT IN HEAVEN

As I sit in heaven
And watch you everyday
I try to let you know with signs
I never went away
I hear you when you are laughing
And watch you as you sleep
I even place my arms around you
To calm you as you weep
I see you wish the days away
Begging to have me home
So I try to send you signs
So you know you are not alone
So I get angry that you have
Life that was denied to me
Heaven is truly beautiful
Just you wait and see
So live your life, laugh again
Enjoy yourself, be free
Then I know with every breath you take You'll be taking one for me.

Blake E. Thrams was brought into this world on a 40 below zero night in Sidney, Montana. He was born on December 9, 1955 to Leon and Mary (Balducke) Thrams, the second of three children. Blake was raised on the family ranch, which instilled upon him the values of life; honesty, hard work, and fun.

He enjoyed playing out there with his sister, and helping with the day to day ranch duties. Blake attended school, in a one room country school house all the way through the 7th grade. He finished his schooling in town in Wibaux, MT. He left home in 1976 to pursue a career. During this time he got married and became a loving father of his two sons, Travis and Josh. He loved to collect caps after 38 years working in the oil field, for Mitchel's Oil. He went to work for the City of Sidney, Old Dominion Freight line, and last for Harco Agri Enterprises. In 2012 he married Betty Taylor in Sidney.

Blake passed away, at his home, on October 8, 2019. He is survived by his wife Betty, sons Travis (Katlyn) of Dozeman, Josh (Britany) of Sidney, and his two grandchildren, Rye and Rigger Thrams. His father Leon Thrams, sister Esther (Mike) Egan, brother Bryan (Sharla), two nieces and a nephew, as well as 2 great nieces.

Blake is preceded in death by his grandparents, his mother, Mary, and several aunts and uncles.

*I cried when you passed away,
I still cry today, although I loved you dearly*

I couldn't make you stay.

A golden heart stopped beating

Hardworking hands at rest

God broke my heart to prove

He only takes the best.
