

One Memory Away

I would have loved to have stayed here
on this earth just one more day,
For it broke my heart to leave you here alone,
But God whispered softly in my ear
and said "my child it's time,"
Then He took my hand in His and led me home.
We journeyed up above the stars,
just beyond the moon,
Where very soon we came to Heaven's gate,
I was welcomed by all who'd gone
before with open arms
As the Angels they all sang Amazing Grace.
But God couldn't help but notice
I kept looking back towards earth,
Wondering if you were okay,
Then He laid His hand upon my shoulder
and said "remember child,
You'll just be one memory away."
So if today the pain seem overwhelming,
Please look into your heart for there you'll find,
My love for you will always be there,
For when I left I left my love behind,
The good times that we shared,
the laughter and the tears,
Every second of every single day,
Will all be there, held safely in your heart,
Until we meet again at Heaven's gate, and until then... I'll just be
One Memory Away.

Celebrating THE Life OF Tammy Kay Deck

November 21, 1963 - January 15, 2020

Don't Cry For Me

Don't cry for me. I will be okay.
Heaven is my home now, and this is where I'll stay.
Don't cry for me. I'm where I belong.
I want you to be happy and try to stay strong.
Don't cry for me. It was just my time,
But I will see you someday on the other side.
Don't cry for me. I am not alone.
The angels are with me to welcome me home.
Don't cry for me, for I have no fear.
All my pain is gone, and Jesus took my tears.
Don't cry for me. This is not the end.
I'll be waiting here for you when we meet again.

Tammy Kay Deck, 56, lost her battle with cancer and went home to her Heavenly Father on Wednesday, January 15, 2020. East Tennessee was her home where she was born and raised.

Tammy was born the daughter of Bert Leo Beeler and Jo Ann (Chamberlain) Beeler in Knoxville, TN on November 21, 1963. She received her education at Gibbs High School in Gibbs, TN in 1993 and furthered her education earning an Automated Accounting certification. She met Jerel Deck while working in Luttrell, TN. They quickly fell in love and united in marriage. Tammy and Jerel spent much of their lives together in their home in Washburn, TN. They later ventured to Stanley, ND for job opportunities. They made their home in Stanley then found a home in Blaisdell, ND. It was always Tammy and Jerel's goal to get back home to Tennessee.

Her passions included spending time with family, any outdoors event, especially camping and fishing. She enjoyed going to the Outer Banks in North Carolina and loved the mountains of Tennessee. Tammy is known to many as a fashionista. She loved fashion! She has the most elegant collection of boots, not all of which Jerel knew about.

Being in her camper with her husband and dogs (her babies) on the road, living "free" kept her smiling. Tammy was always ready to help her friends and to share what she had with them. If Tammy called you a friend, she meant it. She would give you her last dollar if that was what you needed. If she couldn't give you everything you needed she would search far and wide to help. To be a friend of Tammy's meant more than just that...you were family.

Tammy will be dearly missed and will always be loved by all those that knew her.

Tammy is survived by her husband of thirty-four years, Jerel Lynn Deck of Washburn, TN; two sons, Eric Deck and Scotty McPherson of Stanley, ND; nephew, Tim (Timothy) Beeler; three brothers, Denny Beeler, Bert Beeler, Jr. and Jason Beeler; sister, Doris (Beeler) and Charlie Tharp; two grandchildren, Destiny Deck and Justyse Deck of Maynardville, TN and many other loved nieces and nephews. She is preceded in death by her parents; her sister, Janice (Beeler) England and brother, Timothy Beeler.

A Message For My Children

When the day comes that no more tomorrows I shall see,
One of my biggest regrets will be not being able to be there at your side should you need me.

My wish for you then will always be,
That your lives are long and happy,
And that you follow your dreams
wherever the road may lead.

When you look back and I am but a memory,
I pray that you always remember
That you were, are and always will be

Deeply Loved By Me.
