~Written in Loucille's own hand~

We may sleep, but not forever;
There will be a glorious dawn;
We shall meet to part, no never,
On the resurrection morn.
From the deepest caves of ocean,
From the desert and the plain,
From the valley and the mountain,
Countless throngs shall rise again.

"Gleams of the Golden Morning"

The golden morning is fast approaching;
Jesus soon will come
To take His faithful and happy children
To their promised home.

The gospel summons will soon be carried
To the nations round;
The Bridegroom then will cease to tarry
And the trumpet sound.

Attended by all the shining angels,
Down the flaming sky
The Judge will come, and will take His people
Where they will not die.

There those loved ones who have long been parted,
Will all meet that day;
The tears of those who are broken-hearted
Will be wiped away.

Refrain:
O, we see the gleams of the golden morning
Piercing through this night of gloom!
O, we see the gleams of the golden morning
That will burst the tomb.
