

Ronald Larson, 56, of Ray, ND, passed away Thursday, May 21, 2020 at his residence in Ray, ND.

Ronald Wayne Larson was born on November 14, 1963 to Donald and Lillian (Lucas) Larson in Tioga, North Dakota.

He was raised and educated in Ray, ND.

Ron worked as a sandblaster, but his real love was working on cars. It all started in his teenage years when his father told him if he can fix a car then he could have it. He worked as a mechanic at the local Cheron Auto Body Shop. He was the happiest when his head was under the roof of a car tinkering, replacing and repairing. There was nothing he couldn't fix. He simply loved cars, even movies about cars.

He was a fish and aquarium enthusiast, enjoyed watching movies and was always up for a good game of cards especially solitaire. He loved the outdoors, fishing and camping.

Spending time with his children and grandchildren was very important to him. Singing songs with them was always a highlight. He took care of his family, especially his mother.

Ron is survived by his ex-wives and friends, Barbara Larson, Marsha Erikson, Sherre Larson; sons, Chaz (Kayla) Larson of Longmont, CO, Steven Larson of Fargo, ND; daughters, Jessica Larson of Fargo, ND, Kerry Sue Larson of Fargo, ND, Stephanie Larson of Fargo, ND; 8 grandchildren; brother, Donny Larson; sister, Lynnette Larson-Fifer, many nieces and nephews.

He is preceded in death by his parents, Donald and Lillian; sister, Donette; and his friend, Steve Inget.

Another leaf has fallen,
another soul has gone.

But still we have

God's promises,
in every robin's song.

For He's in His Heaven, and though He takes away.

He always leaves to mortals,

Kindly ray
the bright sun's

He leaves the fragrant blossoms,

and lovely forests green.

And gives us new found comfort,
when we on Him will lean.
