

Ashton Clark (Gillming) Stovern came into this world to leave his mark on November 14, 1995, in Chadron, Nebraska. He left this world on July 28, 2020, but not before he left his footprints on this earth. Ashton grew up in small town life from Nebraska to Montana, and loved everything about it. He loved hanging out with his cousins & friends in Sidney, MT, and on his occasional trips to Nebraska. He loved being out at the ranch with his horse, Outlaw. He was so excited to be driving truck again and even more ready for beet season to start.

Ashton's personality always gave the right amount of spice. He typically entered his parent's home with a, "Honey I'm home, what are we watching now?", and never left without throwing one of his sassy, "I love yous" at his dad. When Ashton wasn't trucking or working with his horse, he surrounded himself with family and friends, who were as close as family. He loved coyote "yote" hunting with his brother, riding and roping, and annoying his dad and siblings. His mother was his "ride or die", she was his rock.

Ashton leaves behind his parents Michelle & Rob Stovern; sister, Shelby Stovern (Brooke Danielson); niece, Sophia (Phia); brother, Brok Stovern (Jaden); nephew Greyson Stovern; special friends, Amanda Berger, Sandra Goulette, Matt McKinney, Madison Gorde; his bud Ryan Buckles, all of Sidney, MT; and Danielle Nicole of NE. He also leaves behind grandparents Jim & Terri Stovern of Wolf Point and numerous aunts, uncles, and cousins. Ashton is preceded in death by his grandparents Dale & Patricia Gillming; his cousins Jason Olbricht and Travis Olbricht; and his mentor Rocky Norby.

"Ashton, you are so loved and will be missed by so many"- mom. "You put your footprints on this earth and made your mark"- Brok. We love you, Fly High!

I give you this.
One thought to keep
I am still with you.
I do not sleep.
I am a thousand
winds that blow.
I am the diamond
glints on snow.
I am the sunlight on
the ripened grain.
I am the gentle autumn rain
When you awaken in the morning's hush.
I am the swift uplifting rush...
Of quiet birds in circled flight.
I am the soft stars that shine at night.
Do not think of me as gone
I am with you still. In each new dawn.

"Cowboy Prayer"

As we say farewell, please feel no sorrow,
For time on this earth we only borrow,
Lucky was I, my heart had a home
And with you by my side, I felt not alone.
Love cannot end, it cannot disappear,
I will always be with you,
I will always be near.
And now that my journey
has come to it's end, Please know and take comfort in this my friend.
For me, for my life,
please do not grieve for
now I remain
"Forever Free"
