*"There is a crack in everything.
That's how the light gets in."*

Leonard Cohen

Wendy Renae Kerbaugh, 51, of Tioga, ND, passed away at the Tioga Medical Center in Tioga, ND on Wednesday, October 6, 2021.

Wendy was born on September 24th, 1970 in Grand Forks, North Dakota to Irvin and Cleo Chambers. She attended school in Larimore, ND where she was a Larimore Polar Bear graduate with the class of 1989.

Wendy married Ronald Kerbaugh on May 25th, 1991 and together made their home in Grand Forks, ND. While living in Grand Forks the couple welcomed their children; daughter, Katey and son, Cameron. In 1995 the family decided to make Tioga, ND their home, and they made the move west. Wendy was a stay-at-home mother while her children were growing up, and she also taught at the local preschool for a short time. She was very active in the St. Thomas Catholic Church, and fulfilled many roles there such as: Church Secretary, Director of Religious Education, and teaching Sunday School.

Wendy was a nature lover and you could usually find her outside. Rock hunting, kayaking, and bird watching were a few of her favorite past times.

Wendy is survived by her daughter, Katey Kerbaugh and her daughter, Ari of Barnesville, MN; son, Cameron Kerbaugh of Tioga, ND; mother, Cleo Chambers of Grand Forks, ND; and brothers, Daniel Chambers of Grand Forks, ND, Randy Chambers of Molt, MT and Larry (Roxie) Chambers of Greeley, CO.

Preceding Wendy in death is her father, Irvin Chambers. Sadly, shortly before Wendy's passing was her husband of over 30 years, Ronald Kerbaugh.

Let not your Heart be troubled; ye believe in God, believe also in me. In my Father's house are many Mansions; if it were not so, I would have told you. I go to prepare a place for you. And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again, and receive you unto myself; that where I am, there ye may be also. Peace I leave with you, my peace I give unto you; not as the world giveth, give I unto you. Let not your heart be troubled, neither let it be afraid.
- John 14:1-3,27
