

Robert Orene Bahls (nicknamed Butch by his mom), was born on August 24, 1944 in Sidney, MT. He was the son of Robert and Edna (Burgess) Bahls. Bob was raised on a farm north of Lambert, MT, went to a country school at 3 Buttes which is still standing today. When the weather was nice, Bobby and his sister, Elaine "Laney", would ride horses to school.

Bob liked old cars, trucks, and telling jokes, but he especially liked John Deere Tractors. He would attend many auction sales collecting tractors. You could always find him working on a John Deere. Bob participated in many parades either on horseback, tractors or in cars. He also enjoyed entering and driving in tractor pulls around the area. Bob was a member of the Culbertson Threshing Bee for many years, and served as president of the association for a while. Bob would get on the radio Buy & Sell and advertise his tractors for sale. On September 7, 1985, Bob married Lorean Curnutt.

When he left the farm and moved to Sidney, he would take his daily walk to Millers Corner to visit with the guys, or you could see him around town riding in his Flex Car.

October 3, 2015 was the saddest day for Bob, it was the day he held an antique tractor auction at his home in Sidney, and sold all his tractors.

Bob moved to the Culbertson Nursing Home, and then went to The Lodge in Sidney, MT, before moving to the nursing home in Wibaux, MT, where he passed away on April 20, 2022.

Remember
by Frederick Buechner

"When you remember me,
it means that you have carried
something of who I am with you, that I have left some mark of who I am on who you are.
It means that you can summon me back to your mind even though countless years and miles
may stand between us.
It means that if we meet again,
you will know me.
It means that even after I die,
you can still see my face
and hear my voice and speak to me in your heart.
For as long as you remember me,
I am never entirely lost.
