

Lloyd Aspenlieder of Culbertson, MT, passed away on Sunday, March 26, 2023, at the Roosevelt Medical Care Center in Culbertson, MT.

Lloyd was born in October 9, 1935 in Estevan, Saskatchewan, Canada to Elizabeth Hochstein and John Aspenlieder. I was one of seven children.

My family moved to Glendive in 1948 and were naturalized in 1953. I attended Sacred Heart Parochial School. When I was in 6th and 7th grades, I set pins at the bowling alley in Glendive. I was a Bell Hop at the Jordan Hotel in 8th and 9th grades.

I spent 20 years in the Montana Army National Guard and retired as a Captain.

I married Shirley Mae Cady on June 1, 1957. Our son Alan was born February 8, 1959 and son Jeffery was born May 10, 1960. We were foster parents to Eddie Roller, beginning in 1975. We moved to Culbertson from Glendive in 1959. I managed Miracle Gas propane plant. I operated the laundromat and laundry service, managed the Stockman Bar for 2 years. Worked for Miller Oil Company for 25 years.

Mail carrier for Bainville to and from Wolf Point route for 9 years. Caretaker for the Culbertson Rest Area for 30 years. I also mowed yards for many people.

I was a member of the Culbertson Chamber of Commerce, Lions Club, Jaycees, and the Culbertson Saddle Club. Served 20 years on the Culbertson Volunteer Fire Department. Member of the Saint Anthony's Catholic Church along with serving as a Lector, Eucharistic Minister, attended a 2-year course to be a lay presider in the absence of a priest. I served on the Parish Council for 18 years. Maintenance of the church for many years.

My passion was our Saddle Club Wagon Trains. I owned my wagon and several teams over the years. I enjoyed taking my grandchildren Scott, Nicole, and Bryn on the trail rides. Kenneth Arneson let me ride in the wagon with him for as long as I was able.

I was preceded in death by parents, John and Elizabeth Aspenlieder; brothers, Harvey Aspenlieder, and Matt Aspenlieder; sisters, Viola Hanks and Lorraine Bishop; father-in-law, Vurr Cady; mother-in-law, Mickey Sampson; sister-in-law, Pat Kalloch; and brother-in-law, Ed Kalloch.

I am survived by my wife, Shirley; sons, Alan (Raedelle), Jeff and Eddie (Mona) Roller; grandchildren, Scott (Heather), Nicole (Ted), and Bryn; great-grandchildren, Josie, Ally, Jorgen, Cannon, Blake, and Benton; brothers, Edward Aspenlieder and Lawrence Aspenlieder; along with many nieces and nephews.
