

a True Fisherman

knows when and where the fish are biting.

He rises up early in the morning,
plying the water for that

elusive catch,
waiting in the stillness for a nibble

A slight twitch in the line,
expertly he reels it in –

A good fisherman
knows a keeper when he sees one,
he knows when to toss one back,
and when to head for home.

The LORD is my shepherd; I shall not want. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: He leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul: He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for Thou art with me; Thy rod and Thy staff they comfort me. Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: Thou anointest my head with oil; My cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: And I will dwell in the house of the LORD Forever.

In Loving Memory Of

Dale Weil

June 28, 1951 - March 27, 2023

Dale Paul Weil was born June 28, 1951, to Paul and Bernice Weil in Hazen, North Dakota.

Dale enlisted in the United States Navy 1971 and served four years on the USS Robert Wilson before being honorably discharged in 1975. After that he came home to help with the sugar beet harvest for his sister and brother-in-law. He then began working as a roughneck in the oil field. Dale also worked for MonKota Fertilizer Plant and the sugar factory in Sidney, Montana before he retired.

Although Dale never had children of his own, he loved spending time with his nieces and nephews. He enjoyed fishing and going on daily drives to check and see what was going on in the valley.

Dale passed away on Monday March 27, 2023, at the Sidney Health Center in Sidney , Montana with family by his side.

Dale was preceded in death by his parents Paul and Bernice Weil, niece Brittany Heine, niece Jeneath Weil, and nephew Jonathan Miller.

He is survived by his siblings Don Weil, Wanda (Terry) Miller, Donna Sheetz, Paul Weil, Mary (Jim) Hardy, Barb Strasheim, David ( Danette) Heine, and Aunt Violet Leikam.

The Navy Hymn

*Eternal Father, strong to save,
Whose arm hath bound the restless wave,
Who biddest the mighty ocean deep
Its own appointed limits keep;
Oh, hear us when we cry to Thee,
For those in peril on the sea!*

*O Christ! Whose voice the waters heard
And hushed their raging at Thy Word,
Who walked on the foaming deep
And calm amidst its rage didst sleep,
Oh, hear us when we cry to Thee,
For those in peril on the sea!*

*Most Holy Spirit! Who didst brood
Upon the chaos dark and rude,
And bid its angry tumult cease,
And give, for wild confusion, peace;
Oh, hear us when we cry to Thee,
For those in peril on the sea!*

*O Trinity of love and power!
Our family shield in danger's hour;
From rock and tempest, fire and foe,
Protect us wheresoever we go;
Thus evermore will rise to Thee
Glad hymns of praise from land and sea.*
