For God so Loved

His only

that whosoever believeth in Him should not perish but have Everlasting

Maynard was the son of Philip and Martha (Kvam) Iverson. He was baptized and confirmed in the Lutheran faith. He attended the Iverson School south of Tioga and high school in Tioga, where he played trombone in the high school band.

Maynard was a worker and loved helping his dad on the family farm. He worked at the Texaco Filling Station after school and after graduation, he worked for BJ's Service driving truck. Soon after graduating, he was drafted into the Army serving two years in Germany and was Honorably Discharged.

On March 10, 1966, he married Joetta Meland in Bismarck. They were parents to four children; Eleanor Mae, Deon Maynard, Darren Mark and Deborah Marie.

Maynard was especially proud that his son and grandsons are carrying on the family farm legacy.

My Farm

My farm, to me, is not just land,
Where bare, unpainted buildings stand,
To me, my farm is nothing less,
Than all created loveliness.

My farm is not where I must soil
My hands in endless, dreary toil,
But where, through seed and swelling pod,
I've learned to walk and talk with God.

My farm, to me, is not a place
Outmoded by a modern race.
For here, I think I just see less
Of evil, greed, and selfishness.

My farm's not lonely ... for all day
I hear my children shout at play.
And here, when age comes, free from fears,
I'll live again, long joyous years.

My farm's a haven ... here dwells rest,
Security and happiness ...

What e're befalls the world outside
Here faith, and hope, and love abide.

And so my farm is not just land
Where bare, unpainted buildings stand.
To me, my farm is nothing less
Than all God's hoarded loveliness.
