Clay Brooke Left Hand

August 31, 1994 - February 8, 2024

Clay Brooke Left Hand was born on August 31, 1994 in Watford City, ND to DeLyle Ambrose Left Hand and Kimberly Rae Keeney. She is an enrolled member of the Three Affiliated Tribes and belongs to the Water Buster Clan.

Clay Brooke was very intelligent and reserved. She did not like trouble.

She attended preschool in Mandaree, ND where she resided until the year 2000. She then moved to Mandan, ND where she attended elementary school at Mary Stark. Clay Brooke made so many friends through her years there. In 4th grade Clay Brooke began playing basketball for a travelling team. She brought home so many first-place trophies, every team tried to get her to play for them. Clay Brooke was a huge Kobe Bryant fan and she loved watching him play for the Lakers.

In the summer time Clay Brooke would go to her father's ranch. She would help with all the chores and learned how to barrel race. She was also a talented rider.

Clay Brooke was also an artist with exceptional talent. She most enjoyed freehand drawing and many people wished to purchase her art. She also enjoyed cooking and baking.

The people who she met during her short life will never forget Clay Brooke Left Hand. She will be talked about and remembered for years to come. She was truly of a kind.

She is survived by her mother Kimberly Keeney; father DeLyle Left Hand; sisters Lacey Fox and Peyton DeSautel; brother Derek Fox; aunts Gayla Likes Eagle and Kezia Keeney; uncles Bret Keeney, Donovan Likes Eagle.

She is preceded in death by grandma Edith Likes Eagles, Faye Left Hand; uncle Butch Murphy, and aunt Robin Lee.
