

The Final Cast

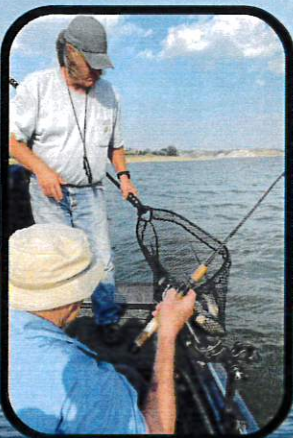

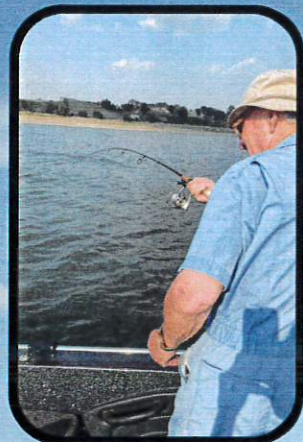

This is my final cast off
I am crossing to the other shore
Remember me with fondness
Grieve for me no more.

I am going to my final resting place
Near that special spot to fish
Remember the times we shared
All of you I too will miss.

This is the path I must take
A voyage that I take alone
Know that my thoughts are with you
As I take this journey home.

To that final fishing hole
For other fishermen like me
Telling stories and fishing tales
About the ones that got away.

So remember me with fondness
Don't think of it as goodbye
It's "Till we meet again"
At the fishing hole in the sky.

THE LIFE OF

Arvine E. Olson

February 21, 1935 - July 3, 2025

Arvine Elwood Olson was born in Nelson County on the family homestead on February 21, 1935 to Johnnie and Emma Olson.

In Arvine's early years, he worked on the farm helping with field work and chores, even driving tractor at age 8. Arvine finished the 8th grade in school and at the age of 15, he decided his calling was in the oilfield, although he always told us about when he worked in the bakery making doughnuts and pies. He was baptized and confirmed in the Lutheran Faith.

In 1950, Arvine moved to Williston. He eventually met Marion and they were married on August 16, 1957 and spent 62 years together. They were blessed with 2 girls, Kimberly and Jan.

He worked roughnecking for several years and moved onto working at Homco Oil Company and became the manager until he and his friend, Mike Sack started their own fishing tool company in Tioga, ND. At the age of 41, he was blessed and able to retire. He kept busy with woodworking and refinishing furniture for many people.

Arvine loved camping, fishing and hunting with his sons-in-law, Stewart and Tom. Many trips were made to Tobin Lake in Canada. He also enjoyed researching family history going to several family reunions and a memorable trip to Norway as well as spending many winters in Arizona. Arvine took great pleasure being at the lake cabins with his family. He also loved watching his grand children and great-grandchildren through the years and was their chief and Ho Ho.

He was a lifetime Moose member, also involved in the Sons of Norway and Woodworkers Club.

Arvine leaves behind his 2 daughters, Kim (Stewart) Boston, Jan (Tom) Winzenburg; grandchildren, Ryan (Kari) Boston, Reo (Sarah) Boston, Jessica (Kris) Redka, Zach (Liz) Winzenburg; great-grandchildren, Aliyah, Jaxson, Thea, Ava, Adam, Elliot, Olive, Max, Piper; sisters, Marcia (Jake) Stokke, Linda Sturgeon; many nieces and nephews; sister-in-law, Maxine Nelson; brothers-in-law, Allen Sutton, Duane Diedrich; his beloved dog, CoCo.

He was preceded in death by his parents, his loving wife, Marion of 62 years; brother, Buddy; sisters, Marion Sibley, Lorene Sutton; father and mother-in-law, Ed and Mabel Olson; and other in-laws.

The family wishes to express deep appreciation to Dr. Mann and nursing staff for their compassion and excellent care given to Arvine during his stay at CHI Hospital.
