

Please don't sing sad songs for me
Forget your grief and tears
For I am in a perfect place
Away from pain and tears...
I'm far away from hunger,
And hurt and want and pride
With the Master at my side.
My life on earth was very good,
As earthly lives can go,
But paradise is so much more
Than anyone can know...
My heart is filled with HAPPINESS,
And sweet rejoicing, too,
To walk with God is perfect peace,
A joy forever new.

STEVEN JOSEPH SWIFT EAGLE

"MÁDAXI"
TURTLE

FEBRUARY 9, 1994 - JULY 24, 2025

Born February 9, 1994, to Jolene Swift Eagle and Tracy Wounded Face in Bismarck, North Dakota. He passed away at his home in New Town, North Dakota, on July 24, 2025.

Steven grew up in Mandaree, North Dakota, with his family, and was raised by his auntie-moms Denise (Monte) Lincoln and Amanda (Keith) McKenzie. He attended school in Mandaree from the beginning of his elementary years until 9th grade.

He enjoyed playing his guitar. He liked to express himself through music. Auntie bought his first guitar, and he picked up playing without reading music. He also enjoyed horseback riding, playing horseshoes, and driving around with his dad, Tracy.

Steven loved his family, always visiting and helping his sister, and just spending time with them. Hunting and fishing with his Uncle Monte Lincoln and the late Keith McKenzie gave him a love for the outdoors. He loved playing basketball either in person or on the Xbox or PlayStation.

Later in his lifetime, he met Kuinn Star (deceased), their son Reveri Crimson Swift Eagle was born and loved his son with everything he had. Steven made sure he was always taken care of. Crimson was his whole world.

Steven was part of the Dripping Dirt clan, preceded by death into the Prairie Chicken clan.

Steven will be dearly missed by Sabrina Wounded Face, Virginia Grady, Rachel Grady, Mariah Grady, Oscar Grady, all of New Town, North Dakota, Dustin Wounded Face, Jon Wounded Face, Ruby Ann Wounded Face, Lacy & Tracy Wounded Face, all of Mandaree, North Dakota.

Steven is preceded in death by his father, Tracy Wounded Face; grandfathers, Joe Wounded Face, Ruben Swift Eagle; grandmothers, Lillian Mae Smith, Frances Jane White Owl.
