Terry Ann Hill was born March 20, 1953 in Williston, North Dakota to Donald and Arlene (Paulson) Hill of rural Ray. She was baptized and confirmed at Rainbow Valley Lutheran Church and spent her early childhood with her family on the Hill farm in Rainbow Township, southern California, and Williston. The next four years were in Milton-Freewater, Oregon, and Walla Walla, Washington before returning to North Dakota and settling in Grenora. After her mom moved to Bottineau to attend college, Terry lived with her aunt and uncle, Gladys and Freddie Eberle her senior year so she could graduate with the class of 1971 in Grenora.

She attended college in Devils Lake until her marriage to her high school sweetheart, Steven Kenneth Storhaug on April 22, 1972. They were married at St. Olaf Lutheran Church in Grenora and moved to the Storhaug farm northwest of Zahl. They spent their entire married life on the farm, with the exception of one year, when Steve went to NDSU in Fargo. Together they raised their son, Neil and daughter, Nicky there. Terry enjoyed the farm life and worked side by side with Steve during many harvest seasons. She had a real fondness for kittens and over the years, she and Nicky named and raised oodles of them.

Neil became her constant companion after Steve’s death on March 1, 2003. Terry stayed on the farm until the fall of 2007 when she bought a home and moved to Williston.

She would play cards anytime, with anyone, and made dozens of cross stitch pictures. She was on a bowling league in Grenora for several years, and could often be found playing bingo. The apples of her eye were her two grandsons, Cole and Logan. A prouder Grama couldn’t be found!

Terry is survived by her son Neil of Zahl, ND; daughter and son-in-law, Nicole and Mike Berg of Zahl, ND; grandsons, Cole and Logan Berg of Zahl, ND; brother Dennis Hill of Williston, ND; sister and brother-in-law, Debbie and Randy Olson of Ray, ND; mother and father-in-law, Grace and Kenneth Storhaug of Williston, ND; brothers-in-law, David and Jan Storhaug of Bismarck, ND; Dennis and Pat Storhaug of Littleton, CO; Leslie and Nancy Storhaug of Columbus, OH; Jerry and Yvonne Storhaug of Spokane, WA; and several aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews and cousins.

She was preceded in death by her husband, Steve; her dad in 1987; and her mom on April 22, 2009.
Mothers Never Die

You have never lost your Mother
Though you’ve said the last good-byes
Though there’s heartbreak in the parting
No one’s Mother really dies.
If you love to hear the old songs
For the memories they bring
It’s because you had a Mother
Who had taught your heart to sing.
If you stop to help a neighbor
Search your heart and you will find
It’s because you had a Mother
Who taught you to be kind.
If you go to church when weary
Seeking God to guide your way
It’s because you had a Mother
Who had taught you how to pray.
No, you’ve never lost your Mother
Though you’ve said your last good-byes
Through your thoughts and deeds she’s living
No one’s Mother really dies.
